

TORONTO BEACHES ANNOUNCE KEOGH AND MAGNAN AS SPECIAL ADVISORS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 15, 2020

TORONTO, ON—Toronto Beaches Junior A Lacrosse is excited to announce the addition of Luc Magnan and Stephen Keogh to the front office. The pair of alumni will serve the leadership team as special advisors—providing counsel and support on club related matters as the Ontario Junior A Lacrosse League plans for return to play in 2021.

“We are incredibly excited to have Luc and Stephen join our leadership team,” said team owner Jason Shuttleworth. “We are surrounding ourselves with guys who not only have significant lacrosse backgrounds in both playing and coaching but are brand ambassadors for our club, with a positive profile in the community.”

Magnan and Keogh are teammates with the Halifax Thunderbirds in the National Lacrosse League (NLL) and are well-known leaders in the Toronto Beaches lacrosse community. Keogh is a Toronto native who grew up playing lacrosse in the Beaches. He has just completed his ninth season in the NLL and eighth with the Halifax Thunderbirds (formerly Rochester Knighthawks) franchise. Magnan is a native of Pine Falls, Manitoba going into his sixth season in the NLL. In February 2020, he was named to the Toronto Beaches Junior A bench as an assistant coach.
